

organised by the community brain

The Apple Blossom Open Day at Knollmead Orchard

Saturday 3rd May 2014

Kingston Permaculture Reserve, Knollmead Allotments, Tolworth

12 noon - 6:00pm

Apple Blossom Day and Opening of Surbiton Food Festival. Model village building, pond dipping, orchard tours, smell the blossom. See how the spoils of the Seething talc mine have been transformed into a vibrant orchard. Bring a picnic and musical instruments.

FREE Orchard open day for all the family.

Bring a picnic and musical instruments. Please wear stout footwear. Dogs welcome. Located on Knollmead road over the railway bridge at KT5 9QP. Access is through the allotment site to behind Knollmead Primary School. The nearest bus stop is for the K1 bus on Barnsbury Lane. From Tolworth railway station walk to the end of Donald Woods Gardens and take the path through to Knollmead.

Part of the annual SURBITON
Food Festival
● ● ● ● ● ● ● ● ● ●
● ● ● ● ● ● ● ● ● ●
surbitonfoodfestival.org

For more information visit www.ttkingston.org/groups-and-projects/knollmead/

